

VX-9 VAMPIRES “VANDY 1”

DECAL SET

for 6mmFlyRC's F-14 Tomcat

VX-9 is an Air Test and Evaluation Squadron that was formed in 1994 from the merger of VX-4 and VX-5. These two original test squadrons were established in the 1950s to test USN ordnance and aircraft.

Always a crowd favourite at airshows, the original all black with Playboy bunny “Vandy 1” was an F-4 Phantom flown by VX-4. This scheme was carried over to an F-14 when the squadron was equipped with them in the 1970s. When VX-9 was formed the “Vandy 1” tradition was continued with the aircraft depicted in this decal set.
